

WILSON REPLIES TO G.O.P. CHARGE

States Any Man Who Revives Sectionalism Is Issue Is Unworthy

SPEAKS AT INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Addresses Meetings of Good Roads Advocates and Farmers

CROWDS PACK STREETS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—President Wilson replied today to the Republican charge that the Democratic Party is a sectional party, with the statement that "any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation."

The president came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advocates and farmers, review an automobile parade celebrating good roads day of the Indiana centennial, and attend a non-partisan luncheon of leading citizens. He was seen by crowds which packed the streets for blocks. In his first set speech he spoke of the good done by highways in preventing sectionalism.

"My fellow citizens," he continued, "I need not tell you that I did not come here to talk politics, but there is one thing that is pertinent in this connection, which I cannot deny myself the privilege of saying. Any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation. He shows himself a provincial, he shows that he himself does not know the various sections of his own country; he shows that he has shut his own heart up in a little province, and that those who do not seek the special interests of that province are to him sectional, while he alone is national. That is the depth of anti-patriotic feeling."

At both meetings the president's addresses were interrupted frequently by applause, and handclapping marked his progress thru the streets. The coliseum at the fair grounds, where he delivered his first address had many vacant seats in the rear, but the hall in which he spoke later was filled. He also spoke briefly at a luncheon given him by Governor and Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana.

The second set speech was devoted to a discussion of the work of the Democratic administration for the farmers of the nation.

The president left here at 5:45 o'clock this afternoon for Long Branch, N. J., where he will arrive tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

President Wilson in his good roads speech said in part:

"I am here because of my interest in the cause of good roads and because of my interest in the state of Indiana.

"But after all the highway is not intended first of all and chief of all for the pleasure vehicle. It is not intended for the mere traveler. It is not intended for the mere tourist. It is not made in order that some company of leisured people may travel from coast to coast of this great continent. It is made because we need it in all the material uses of our life.

"It is perfectly obvious that you have got to have an intricate and perfect network of roads thruout the length and breadth of this great continent before you will have released the energies of America. Good roads are necessary for every practical aspect of our lives, to draw neighborhoods together, to create community of feeling; to create those arteries which may be compared to the arteries of the human body. The blood of the nation will not flow in harmonious concord unless it can flow in intimate sympathy.

"And so the argument, the material argument, the argument about markets and crops and the products of the mines, sink into relative importance when you consider the spiritual thing that you are doing in making roads. You know there is an old saying that the lines between sections are obliterated by the feet that cross them. There is a very real saying of a great English writer that he never could hate a man he knew. And sectionalism is based upon the radical danger of every nation, namely ignorance. The only thing that breeds darkness in the world is ignorance. The only thing that really binds us is not knowing what we are talking about. The only thing that binds a nation together is the knowledge of its several parts of each other.

"My fellow citizens, I need not tell you that I did not come here to talk politics, but there is one thing that is pertinent in this connection which I cannot deny myself the privilege of saying. Any man

DESTROYER BRINGS BRITISH SHIP BACK

Overhauls City of Madras After It Ignores War Vessel's Signal to Stop.

New York, Oct. 12.—The British steamship City of Madras was overhauled off Ambrose Channel Lightship tonight by the United States Torpedo Destroyer Sterrett and brought back to Clifton, Staten Island after it had ignored the war vessel's signal to stop when it left quarantine.

The City of Madras, a vessel of 3048 tons cleared from this port Monday for Singapore, Manila, and Hong Kong, but anchored above quarantine, apparently fearful of a submarine attack.

As the ship passed quarantine tonight on her way out she was signalled by the Sterrett to stop but instead raced down the harbor. She was overtaken abreast the Ambrose Channel lightship.

It was said at quarantine late tonight that the City of Madras would be permitted to sail tomorrow morning as her clearance papers are correct. She was forced to turn back, it was explained because she failed to obey an order of a United States warship on patrol duty.

STATES EXEMPTIONS ARE TOO NUMEROUS

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Replying to Sir Edward Carson who again raised the question of man power and Ireland's contribution in the House of Commons today the War Minister, Mr. Lloyd George said there was no doubt whatever about the country's available man power and reserves but it was necessary to get at them. The exemptions he declared, had been far too numerous; if he gave the figures he would startle the House. The exemptions had run into millions.

The ministers believed the government had power to deal with the exemptions but if not they would consult the House on needful measures.

"We must lay the foundations for a war extending over a prolonged period," said Mr. Lloyd George. "That is the only way to insure victory."

REFERENCES TO WAR IN EUROPE FREQUENT

Delegates From England and Canada Attend Sessions of Protestant Episcopal Church in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—References to the European war were frequent at the sessions of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church here today.

The Rt. Rev. Huyshe Wolcott Yeatman-Biggs, bishop of Worcester, England, and the Rt. Rev. Henry H. Montgomery, secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, Church of England, conveyed the greeting of the Mother Church to the convention, the Most Rev. George Thornloe, archbishop of Algoma, Ont., the Rt. Rev. David Williams, bishop of Huron, Ont., expressed the good will of the Episcopal Church of Canada. The pulpit from which they spoke was decorated with the flags of the United States, England and Canada.

Re-marriage of divorced persons—one of the paramount issues before the convention—provoked a spirited three hour debate at today's session of the house of deputies.

After several efforts to bring to a vote a proposal to amend the canons of the church to provide that no divorced person, having a partner still living shall have a wedding ceremony performed by a clergyman of the church, further discussion was postponed until next Saturday.

GREECE PROTESTS AGAINST DEMANDS

ATHENS, Oct. 11 (Via London, Oct. 12)—Delayed—The Greek government today issued a communication in which after reciting the demands set forth in the ultimatum of Vice Admiral Dartige Du Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet, that the entire Greek fleet except the armored cruiser Averoff, and the Battleships Lemnos, and Kilkis be turned over to the Entente Allies, it says:

"The Hellenic government before the terms of a few hours were allowed to expire, replied that it considers it its duty to protest against the exigencies formulated, to which, however, it will submit in the circumstances, making of it an imperative necessity."

On the arrival of the crews of the abandoned ships in the capital they were wildly cheered by the populace.

MISSISSIPPI TEAM WINS

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 12.—The Mississippi National Guard team today won the southern championship of the National Rifle tournament in progress on the Florida range, scoring 1,016 points out of a possible 1,200. Only those teams affiliated with the Southern Rifle Association competed for the trophy, but a New York National Guard known as the second team scored 1,037 and captured first prize money.

STEAMER KINGSTONIAN REPORTED SAFE IN PORT

Boston Manager of Leyland Line Receives Word

Information Shows Ship Was Thousands of Miles From Nantucket During Submarine Raid Last Sunday—Report Seems to Confirm Opinion of Marine Men.

Boston, Oct. 12.—The British steamer Kingstonian, reported as among those torpedoed by a German submarine off Nantucket last Sunday is safe in port, according to word received today by John Thomas of this city, local manager of the Leyland line, which owns the steamer. Mr. Thomas said his information showed that the Kingstonian was thousands of miles from Nantucket last Sunday.

As the Kingstonian is in the service of the British Admiralty Mr. Thomas was not permitted to indicate the port at which she had arrived but he said that it would take her two weeks of steaming at her usual speed to reach Nantucket.

This information seems to confirm the opinion held by marine men here that the report of the Kingstonian's loss arose from a wireless confusion of her name with that of the Christian Knudsen, the Norwegian tank steamer sunk by the U-boat.

Capt. Wilson of the British steamer Strathdene, another of the ships caught by the submarine hailed a passing vessel and inquired her name. He understood the reply to be "Kingston" and later after the submarine had torpedoed the same vessel and her crew had taken to their boats, Capt. Wilson reported to the Nantucket Lightship the loss of the supposed "Kingston." There was no record of any steamer of that name in these waters but it was thought possible that the Kingstonian might be the submarine's victim as on account of her work for the British Admiralty her movements are not recorded in maritime registers.

The first British steamer to leave this port since the appearance of the U-boat was reported, sailed today. She is the Coruna, a coal freighter, bound for Louisburg. A few hours later the Leyland liner Memphis with a big cargo largely grain sailed for Manchester, England.

The steamer Kansas which was held up by the German submarine early Sunday morning and later was allowed to proceed to this port, where she took on horses for Genoa, Italy, is expected to sail tomorrow. The delay in her departure on account of fear of the submarine off the coast was very costly to her charterers, the Franco-Canada line it is said as the charter price is understood to be $2,300 a day or nearly $100 an hour.

ELECTRIC RAILROAD MEN ELECT OFFICERS

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 12.—Election of officers and a historical review of the industry by Frank J. Sprague who promoted and built the first commercially successful trolley line in 1888 in Richmond, Va., were the features of today's sessions of the annual convention of the American Electric Railway Association.

L. S. Storrs, president of the Connecticut Company, New Haven was chosen president and E. B. Burr, New York, was re-elected secretary treasurers.

In his address Mr. Sprague laid the great field of electric transportation lay in the electrification of steam railroads which he declared was dependent almost entirely on financial considerations.

EXCUSE ILLINOIS OFFICERS FROM TRIAL

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12.—Captains Walrath and Laas, quartermasters of the 1st and 2nd Illinois Infantry and members of the supply companies of both regiments, all of whom have been held here pending investigation of the loss of fifty five government horses and mules will be excused from trial and allowed to return home, Gen. Funston announced today. The investigation showed the officers were not guilty of criminal negligence. Some of the missing animals have been found.

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

New York, Oct. 12.—Succoth, the Feast of Tabernacles, the concluding festival of the cycle of Jewish fall holy days, is being celebrated today by the members of the faith thruout the world. This festival, which lasts eight days, commemorates the dwelling of the children of Israel in the wilderness after the exodus from Egypt, when they lived in booths or succoth. To fittingly celebrate this period of Israel's history, observant Jews erect temporary tabernacles, adorned with autumnal fruits and foliage on the grounds adjacent to their places of worship. In these succoth portions of the festival service are conducted.

War News Summarized

Another step forward in their quest of Trieste has been made by the Italians in the region south of Gorizia, additional points of vantage to their progress having been captured and 1171 men made prisoner.

In this region, which is about sixteen miles northwest of Trieste, and in the Julian Alps, to the east, the Italians from August 6 to the present report that they have captured 39,881 Austrians. On the Carso plateau heavy Austrian attacks against the positions recently taken by the Italians have been repulsed.

Along the entire eastern Transylvania front the Roumanians are still in retreat and in the north also are beginning to fall back before the troops of the Teutonic Allies according to Berlin.

Bucharest says, however, that attacks at various points on their northern and northwestern fronts have been repelled.

The British troops have reached the outskirts of the important town of Seres in Greek Macedonia north of Lake Tabinos, having driven back their opponents from the outlying districts.

London reports that the town is held by the Teutons. Westward the village of Brod, which lies in Serbia southeast of Monastir, has been captured by the Serbians. Both Berlin and Sofia report the repulse of attacks along the Cerna river and on both sides of the Vardar.

That the British have gained some additional ground north of Thiepval, south of the Ancre river in France, and on the Sars-Guedecourt line is indicated in the Berlin official communication which says British attacks have failed "for the most part" before the German curtain of fire. West of Sailly-Saillies, the French have made a further advance.

South of the Somme violent artillery duels are in progress especially between Genemont and Chaulnes. In the town of Ablaincourt the Germans and French are engaged in hand to hand fighting.

HANLEY CRITICISES CAMPAIGN MANAGERS

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 12.—Efforts of National campaign managers of both big political parties to capture the German-American vote were severely criticised and the attitude of President Wilson toward "German atrocities" pronounced "meek" today by J. Frank Hanley, the Prohibition presidential candidate, in speeches thru Illinois. Hanley's comments were prompted by the publication of a story, the truth of which he said he doubted, in relation to alleged conferences between Senator Stone and certain widely known German-Americans in New York over the political situation.

Many of Hanley's old friends greeted him when he spoke in Champaign near his boyhood home. Other meetings were held today in Springfield, Lincoln, Clinton, Tolono and Benmont. Tomorrow will be divided between southern Illinois and Indiana points.

WILL CONTINUE CONFERENCE TODAY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 12.—"Satisfactory progress" was the official characterization today of the status of the negotiations of the Mexican-American joint commission. The members spent the day in further analysis of the suggested plans of governing the Mexican frontier but there is reason to believe that at the end of the session they were yet far apart on a few of the details.

The conference will be continued tomorrow but it was evident the conferees hope for little real advancement until after the Mexican representatives had an opportunity to confer with Ambassador-Designate Arredondo, now on his way here from Mexico City where he was summoned by Gen. Carranza.

DELTA UPSILON FRATERNITY

Providence, R. I., Oct. 12.—The eighty-second annual convention of the Delta Upsilon fraternity is to be entertained by the Brown University chapter during the three days beginning today. Delegates from many parts of the country are here to participate in the sessions. Delta Upsilon is one of the largest of the Greek letter fraternities, having a membership of over ten thousand. It was founded at Williams, in 1834 as an anti-sect society, by a group of strong-minded students which included Stephen J. Field, afterwards a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and James A. Garfield, afterwards President. Prominent among the present members of the fraternity is Charles E. Hughes, the Republican presidential nominee. It is hoped that Mr. Hughes will be able to attend the convention banquet here Saturday night.

The case of R. W. Wilkinson charged with obtaining money under false pretenses was continued before Justice Dyer Thursday until Thursday, Oct. 19th, at 9 o'clock.

U-BOAT RAID MIGHT RAISE BROAD ISSUE

Investigation Apparently Eases Minds of Officials

Dislocation of American Shipping, the Great Increase in Insurance Rates and Possibility of Serious Freight Congestion May Largely Determine U. S. Policy.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Investigation of Germany's submarine operations off Nantucket apparently has eased the minds of officials here but it was said authoritatively tonight that should the situation develop prolonged paralysis of American trade in the Atlantic or any similar injury to vital American interests, a broad issue might be raised transcending the specific questions of international law discussed in connection with the U-boat raid.

Such questions as the dislocation of shipping along the Atlantic seaboard, the great increase in marine insurance rates, and the possibility of serious freight congestion and railroad embargoes have been foremost in the minds of officials it was indicated and will determine largely the government's policy if any active submarine campaign is attempted on this side of the Atlantic.

One high official suggested that the narrow and dimly defined stipulations of international law could not be depended upon entirely to meet developments vitally affecting the nation's international interests.

The sinking of the Dutch steamer Bloemerdijk, a neutral vessel flying a neutral flag and plying between two neutral ports is understood to be one of the considerations that has led officials to view with apprehension the future of submarine operations off American shores.

Adriatic Speeding South.—With all lights extinguished the steamship Adriatic of the White Star Line, carrying 353 passengers and 18,000 tons of war munitions, was believed tonight to be speeding south from this port, well within the three mile zone of neutral flag and plying between two neutral ports. Her destination was Liverpool and her course to that city would lead east from Sandy Hook. She apparently followed in the wake of the freight laden Pannonia and Minnehaha. The Danish vessel Hellig Olav, more venturesome than the British steamers took the easterly course after clearing the bar. They were the first vessels to leave New York ports since the submarine raid of Sunday.

The Adriatic left her dock this afternoon but after reaching Sandy Hook dropped anchor outside the bar. As night fell no lights flashed aboard the big liner. It was believed however that she headed south soon after 7 o'clock.

No British or French cruisers which might act as convoys were sighted altho it was believed they might pick up the liner after she was forced to leave the three mile limit. The almost simultaneous departure of the Adriatic and the two British freighters was considered significant. There were four American citizens on the Adriatic. Two other American citizens, Filipinos passengers in the second cabin and 100 in the steerage. All the life boats of the upper tier were uncovered, and ready for instant use when the vessel left.

The Hellig Olav carried about 100 passengers in her first and second cabins and 250 in the third cabin.

VENEZUELOS DENOUNCES KING CONSTANTINE

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The newspapers today published an interview granted Ward Price, the official British press representative by Elliptherios Venezelos at Saloniki in which the former premier denounced King Constantine as responsible for the present state of affairs in Greece and outlined further plans for the provisional government which include the raising of an army corps to fight on the side of the Entente Allies against the Bulgarians.

In the interview M. Venezelos declared it was the intention of himself and his collaborators to set up self and his collaborators to set up exercising all powers of state, "levying existing taxes to maintain the military service and raise and equip troops."

After expressing confidence in the triumph of the provisional government of which he is the head, M. Venezelos concluded:

"We want to fight side by side with the Allies. We hope soon to have an army corps in the field."

NEW PRESIDENT OF ARGENTINA

Buenos Aires, Oct. 10.—With today's inauguration of Hipolito Yrigoyen as president of the republic, Argentina enters upon its first Radical administration. The new president, who succeeds Victorino de la Plaza, has been the Radical party's leader for 20 years. He is a highly cultivated man and for a long time held a professorship at the Argentina normal school for women.

The presidential inauguration took place before a joint session of the senate and house of representatives, in the latter's assembly hall in the national legislative palace. The oath of office was administered by Benito Villanueva, president of the senate. With Dr. Yrigoyen there was sworn into office, as vice president, Dr. Pelagio Luna, a lawyer.

ONE MAN KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT

Strikers at Bayonne, N. J., and Police Engage in Fought Battle—Two Critically Wounded.

Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 12.—One man was killed and at least a score wounded, two of them so seriously that they are not expected to live in a pitched battle here late today between striking employees of the Standard Oil Company, and the police. The fight was the culmination of a series of disturbances that began Wednesday and continued thruout last night and today. New Jersey militiamen, back from duty along the Mexican border, who were sworn in as special policemen, aided in dispersing the rioters, who were terrorizing the city by looting and burning.

Half a dozen sheds overlooking the oil refineries were set on fire before the authorities were able to restore a semblance of order by firing volleys of rifle and pistol shots into the ranks of the strikers and their sympathizers.

Isidor Natielsky, 22, a lawyer, who had no part in the riot, late today was the man killed. He was shot thru the back it was said, while running from the scene of the battle.

Harris Martin, 19, a boy striker, was shot thru the right lung and probably will die, according to physicians. Edward Green, 30 years old was shot thru the left lung. He also probably will die. Five others are in hospitals suffering from wounds, but are expected to recover. The police report that more than a dozen strikers and their sympathizers who were injured were carried to their homes.

As far as could be learned none of the policemen or militiamen were hurt. A fireman however was shot and wounded earlier in the day while attempting to attach a hose to a hydrant in an effort to drive away an unruly crowd.

Another battle between the strikers and the police occurred shortly before midnight when about 100 of the former who had assembled in an alleyway were ordered to move on. Several shots were exchanged and the crowd scattered, leaving one of their number behind with wounds in his left side and right leg. None of the police was hurt. The police established a "dead line" beyond which none of the strikers were permitted to pass.

AMERICAN DRIVER SHOT MEXICAN GUARD

NACO, Ariz., Oct. 12.—When an unidentified American driver attached to the Arizona National Guard crossed the international line near here today to recover a strayed mule he shot and fatally wounded a private named Miguel Fontoso, a Carranza guard on the Mexican side of the line who tried to arrest him. The mule driver fled to the American side and army officers are trying to locate him.

Will Ask Investigation.—Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 12.—Brig. Gen. T. F. Davis, commanding the Arizona military district will be asked by the Mexican consul here to Fontoso, a Naco, Sonora, customs guard, it was announced at the Mexican consulate, the shooting of Miguel.

DELIVER MEMORANDUM TO STATE DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Identical memorandums from the British and French governments replying to the American protest against seizures of neutral mails were delivered today to the State Department by the embassies here. The text was not made public but the allies are understood to give renewed promises that every effort will be made to minimize delay and annoyance caused by examination but to insist upon certain legal rights in regards to mails which the United States has denied.

The principal complaint of the American government has been based on the contention that many vessels have been diverted from the high seas into British ports in order to give the British censors jurisdiction. There is no indication that the new memorandum makes any concession of principle on that point.

HUGHES TOURS NEW CAMPAIGN FIELD

Nominee Goes Thru Kentucky Mountains—Ends Day At Louisville

SPEAKS IN SIX TOWNS

Devotes Much of Address At Louisville To What He Termed "New Slavery"

HEARERS COME MILES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—Charles Evans Hughes went thru the mountains of Kentucky today, a new campaign field for presidential nominees, outlining his views on the maintenance of American rights and ended his day's tour of the state with a meeting here tonight in which he declared that the "new freedom" advocated by President Wilson four years ago had been transmuted in one respect to "the new slavery."

Mr. Hughes spoke in six towns today to audiences that had come, for the most part, many miles to hear him. They came down from the mountains, men and women, on foot, on horseback and on mule back. Some of the mounts had no saddles and many of the women came to him wearing clay pipes as he talked. At several stops the nominee's special train was backed down a spur track and he spoke to audiences in open fields. They sat on their horses and mules and in their farm wagons to listen. Some brought their families along, including babies in their mothers' arms.

In his speech in Phoenix Hill here today, Mr. Hughes devoted much of his attention to the protective tariff and to what he termed the "new slavery."

"We have heard much of the new freedom," he said. "It seems to have a surprising and deplorable range. It has meant freedom to sacrifice the principles of the merit system which our opponents pledged themselves to enforce. Thousands of offices have been created with the provision that they might be filled without reference to the requirements of the Civil Service Act. It has meant freedom to embark in novel enterprises in competition with private business as in the case of the government shipping bill.

"It has meant freedom to depart from all the principles of international law to conduct a personal diplomacy to satisfy personal vindictiveness. It has meant freedom to wage war, not to protect American rights but to dislodge a disliked ruler and to leave our citizens and their property to anarchy and revolution. It has meant freedom to depart from our time honored policy of protecting American citizens who take American enterprise abroad and to substitute as a new policy which treats them as adventurers whose flag is no longer a symbol of protection of their just rights.

"It means freedom to subvert the principles of government by yielding to the demands of force. In this last phase instead of the new freedom we have the new slavery."

"The new slavery is government by holdup. It is terrorized government or the rule of politics assuming terror as an excuse for submission. The executive is chosen to defend the citadel of constitutional government. Instead he surrenders it. Where shall this stop?

"These innovations are serious blows to American business. But it is said that the administration has aided business but strangely enough it refers to the antitrust act. It is said that the laws stood in need of definition, that the men spoke of them as shackles and the administration seems to wish to create the impression that it has unshackled business.

"A most extraordinary claim! They say they have supplied the needed definition. They have done nothing of the sort. They have added vague phrase to the law, the phrase 'unfair competition.' The content of this they have not defined. No phrase more indefinite was ever put into the statute.

"This phrase as used in the new law was evidently intended to have a wider meaning than that. What is its meaning? No lawyer knows. It will have to be worked out thru years of litigation and by the decisions of courts for the federal trade commission cannot handle the legal meaning of the statute which confers its authority.

"Not only does the federal trade commission act not define what it means by unfair competition, but it leaves the anti-trust act in full effect as before."

Answering a question here tonight as to what he would have done when the Lusitania was sunk, Mr. Hughes declared he would have "made it known in terms unequivocal and unmistakable that we should not tolerate a continuance of friendly relations when notice was published with reference to the threatened action."

LOWDEN, PLAIN AND FORCEFUL

Thursday night's meeting at Armory hall was of a kind to warm the hearts of Republican voters. Not for many a day has such an enthusiasm been seen locally at a political meeting. It was the kind of enthusiasm which used to accompany the torchlight parades and the flambeau clubs, the Roosevelt Roughriders and Uncle Tommy Barber's juvenile drum corps.

The interest was of a contagious kind and centered about Colonel Lowden, candidate for governor.

This enthusiasm was materially increased by Colonel Lowden's somewhat brief address. It was the sixteenth address for the day, yet the candidate gave no sign of weariness other than the huskiness of the voice. There was nothing ornate about the address. It was not "funny". It was the straightforward statement of a sincere patriotic business man.

There is that about the personality and about the speech of the candidate that impresses his hearers, above all, with his sincerity and the earnestness of his desire to be governor of this state for the benefit of the state. Those who heard Colonel Lowden last night heard statements strictly in accord with his pre-nomination speeches. There were no flowery promises of impossible things but clear declarations that if elected governor he will have an eye single to the purpose of putting the business of the state upon a sound and correct basis.

Colonel Lowden has the experience, he has the ability, he has the will to do big and needed things for Illinois, and all that remains is for the people to place him in the executive chair. They will do it November 7. To use his own words, millennial days will not come with his election but there can confidently be predicted an era of business prosperity for the state of a kind not seen in Illinois for many a year.

Some Reasons Why Hughes Should Be Elected

Because he stands for Protection, Prosperity and Patriotism.

Because he will not permit partisanship to triumph over Patriotism.

Because his speech of acceptance expresses his desire to co-operate with labor for its advantage, not to exploit it for his own.

Because he will command the respect of Europe and Asia and win the friendship of Latin-America.

Because he will never by proclamation deny the right of Americans

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE ANOMALY.

While riding in my buzz-buzz cart, I hit Bill Wax and spoiled his frame, and knocked his marrow-bones apart, and he remarked, "I was to blame!" I said, "This dark disaster, Bill, to my sad life new sorrow lends; I do not run my car to kill or mangle my dearest friends. I'll pay the surgeon if he'll fix the bones I've broken, rent and bowed; and if you journey o'er the Styx, I'll see you have a Palm Beach shroud." "It was my fault," I heard him say, "and you don't have to pay a cent, for I was walking like a jay, and wasn't looking where I went. I busted every rule I think, which ought to govern carts on foot, and now you've put me on the blink, I think a while I should stay put." Bill Wax shines brighter than a star; Bill Wax deserves immortal fame; he says the owner of a car is not in every case to blame! Hereafter, as I tour the town, in my new car that swiftly hies, I'll always try to run him down in preference to other guys.

to pursue their business in other lands under the protection of the American flag.

Because he will not repudiate the American flag in any land.

Because he will not put action into words, but words into action.

Because, as Theodore Roosevelt well says, he has high sentiments of justice and dignity, is upright and straightforward, is an incontestable master of judicial matters, and always translates his words into deeds. Because he is a strong, sure, courageous man, with a clear-cut program before him and with the courage, intelligence and determination to carry it out and bring to our country self-respecting peace and world-wide respect.

Because as Governor of New York he has already proved that he dared to do the right thing, and is prepared to further do and dare when called into a wider field.

Because he is not a dreamer and not a quitter.

Because he is a firm friend of preparedness for the United States and not for preparedness thru political expediency.

Because he will not burden us with war taxes in times of peace.

Because we need a tariff not founded upon free trade, nor for "revenue only," but to protect American labor and American industry from the deadly competition of the foreigner.

Because he is a red-blooded American. His policy will be "America first, America efficient."

Because he can be depended upon to keep platform pledges.

Because he will protect this country against being flooded with the cheap manufactures of Europe after the war.

Because he is the chosen head of a party which has long fathered all great constructive legislation which experience has proved to be wise and which has invariably been opposed by the Democratic party.

RUTGERS COLLEGE JUBILEE BEGINS

One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary Observed at New Brunswick With Appropriate Ceremonies.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 12.—New Brunswick is a mass of gay colors and is ready for the great event in her history, for today was inaugurated the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the founding of Rutgers College, for which preparations have been in progress for more than a year. Many celebrities, including representatives of all the leading educational institutions of America, as well as a number in England and Holland, will be here to participate in the exercises and festivities that will continue thru the remainder of the week. Hundreds of former students and other visitors are expected from all sections of the country.

Today's program included the reception of the distinguished guests and the holding of an educational conference. Participating in the conference were many educators of note, among them Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education; Dr. John H. Finley, New York State commissioner of education; Dr. Calvin N. Kendall, commissioner of education of New Jersey; Rush Rhees, president of Rochester University, and Henry Suzzallo, president of the University of Washington.

The anniversary celebration proper will begin tomorrow and continue over Saturday. Tomorrow night there is to be a banquet at which the speakers will include President Hibben of Princeton, President Faunce of Brown University, James M. Beck, former Assistant United States Attorney General, and the Chevalier W. L. F. Van Rappard, the Minister from the Netherlands.

The alumni parade in costume, which is to be held Saturday before the football game with Washington and Lee, will be one of the biggest events ever seen here. Practically every class for the last fifty years will have a delegation in the parade.

Founded as Queen's College in 1760, Rutgers is the eighth oldest college in the United States. It survived the stormy days of the Revolution, continued to keep its doors open thru the civil war, and in the past ten years has increased its student enrollment by almost 100 per cent. Now, as the State College of New Jersey, it has an undergraduate body of almost 500 students.

Rutgers is especially fortunate in its store of traditions which has made possible the historical pageant. The college had its origin in the zeal for education and religion shown by the Dutch colonists in New York and New Jersey. The first charter was granted in the name of George III, by William Franklin, governor of the Province of New Jersey. A second charter was granted in 1770, and under its provisions, almost unchanged, Rutgers has continued until the present day.

SHORTER HOURS FOR CAPPS EMPLOYEES

New Order Applies to Workers in Both Departments—Three Hours and Half Less Work With no Reduction in Pay.

An announcement has just been made by J. Capps & Sons of a change in the hours of employment which is very gratifying to their employees. Briefly stated the change means three and a half hours less labor each week without any reduction in wages. There are about 400 employees on the firm's payroll now and the new order affects at least seventy percent of them.

The mill has been working the same number of hours that prevail all over the country in mills of like kind. Owing to the fact that the firm combines woolen mill and clothing factory in the same plant, and the further fact that clothing establishments usually work on shorter schedules than woolen mills, the firm decided to voluntarily reduce the working hours three and one half hours per week. This will be accomplished by cutting half an hour from the working time five days in the week and one hour on Saturday.

The hours have been from 7 to 12 and 1 to 6 for five days and from 7 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday. Under the new schedule the hours will be from 7 to 12 and 1 to 5:30 for five days and from 7 o'clock to 12 noon on Saturday. By the new order the clothing factory will have as short hours as prevail in the clothing industry, and the mill workers will have a shorter schedule than at any other woolen mill with possibly the exception of one or two in the east. Naturally the employees are very much gratified over the firm's announcement, indicating as it does a real interest in their welfare. The expressions of appreciation and approval yesterday were numerous.

COMPLETE CRIMINAL STATISTICS LACKING

Such Is Claim Made By Speaker At Prison Association Conference—Figures Would Aid Fight On Crime.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 12.—"The lack of a rational, comprehensive system of criminal statistics in the United States is one of the worst evidences to condemn us in the eyes of the scientific world," said William T. Cross, general secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Correction, in presenting the report of the committee on statistics of crime to the American Prison association at its annual Congress here today.

This failure, he said, is at the same time "probably the most pervasive fault in our public organization to combat crime." He continued:

"Our scientific relations internationally are becoming constantly more profitable—in no realm more than that of the administration of justice and the treatment of persons convicted of crime. Yet our criminal statistics are the despair of the foreigner. The attitude of the penologists of European countries towards us must be about like that we have towards those dependent upon the sign language. Perhaps no European nation furnishes us an acceptable model of organization of criminal statistics, but at least their statistics are so planned as to lend good support to progressive administration and to facilitate scientific research.

"To be reliable and most useful, criminal statistics must be so correlated as to represent a continuous and complete view of the offender and of the process of treatment, beginning with his first overt act, the report of the offense, apprehension, preliminary custody, trial, conviction, sentence, conditional discharge, and after-care. The criminal is a unit, likewise the problem; so should the process be, and so the statistics. The facts we gather and tabulate should approximate the freshness and fullness of a physician's case description. As correlatives, it is plain that the terms and classification, as well as possible, must be standardized and uniform, and that the facts compiled in different states should agree in their main outlines. The cogs must fit.

"Our criminal statistics must be useful from the standpoint of both administration and independent research. We will remain in the present unhappy deadlock until the criticizing professor, the practical warden, the judge and police chief get their heads together.

"It appears to be desirable that a committee be created by appointment by appropriate national groups to aid in the establishment or improvement of state bureaus and in the standardization of their statistics. We submit that the American Prison Association should take the lead in the creation of such a general committee. In support of this proposal you are reminded of the fact that good criminal statistics are necessary for an intelligent legislation and administration. What is said to be the largest item in the public budget, that for combating crime, should not be spent in ignorance."

COW TESTING BENEFITS DISCUSSED BY DAIRYMEN

Formation of a Local Association
Projected at a Meeting Held Thursday Night at Chamber of Commerce.

A cow testing association for Morgan county dairymen is the probability for the very near future. E. M.
Clark of the University of Illinois, head of the department of dairy extension, was in the city Thursday to meet local farmers and dairymen.
Thursday evening a meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and the organization of this association was projected.

Such an organization would mean much to the dairy industry in Morgan county.

It is the plan to employ a specialist, who each month would go to each of the members of the association, weigh the feed of the individual cow, weigh and test the milk and offer suggestions for improving the quantity and quality of output.

According to the testimony of communities where the plan has been tried out, the cost to each member is slight. In Denmark and in Sweden such associations have long been in use. In Wisconsin and Michigan and in New York there are many cow testing associations and at no time have such organizations been brought into use without untold benefit to the farmers of the community.

He was well known to all members of the order and especially so traub's death sent flowers from the members of the Arabs.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed SENRECO to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know; why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO—25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 4c in stamps.

Republican State Candidates Get Hearty Welcome Here

Real Ovation Given at Armory With Old Time Enthusiasm Prevailing

Lowden, Russel and All Other Candidates Here to Meet the Voters—Big Audience Interested Thru Four Hours of Speech Making—"Billy" Mason Closed Program
With Blended Humor and Logic—Enthusiasm Gave Forecast of November Election Result.

It was a monster Republican meeting Thursday night with an all star list of performers. All the headliners were there, nine of them—count them. Colonel Lowden, "Billy" Mason, Medill McCormick, Andrew Russell, Len Small, John G. Oglesby, Edward J. Brundage, Senator S. E. Smith and Cicero J. Lindley, all but the two last mentioned candidates for state office. In addition, prominent local Republicans were on the platform and an enthusiasm prevailed which reminded one of the campaigns of other years, when the Republican party was gloriously victorious. Everybody seemed to share in the optimistic feeling expressed by the candidates, that the crowds which have greeted them everywhere in the forty nine counties they have visited betoken overwhelming party success at the polls in November. John J. Reeve was the presiding chairman for the occasion.

A Four Hour Session
Two meetings were fused into one and the big crowd which assembled at 7:30 grew larger as time passed along and when the closing words were spoken by Senator Mason just about 11:30, every available inch of space was taken in the Armory and hundreds thronged about the entrance unable to gain admission.

Mrs. Miller Weir, chairman of the Woman's County Republican organization, was introduced to preside during the earlier part of the meeting. Mr. Reeve referred to her as the first chairman of such an organization in Morgan county. Mrs. Weir briefly introduced Mrs. Harriet Howard, of Chicago, who in a splendid address called the Wilson administration into an accounting and gave reasons why women may be expected to strongly support Charles E. Hughes in the coming election.

Mr. Reeve introduced Cicero J. Lindley of Greenville. He was followed by Andrew Russell, Colonel John G. Oglesby and Medill McCormick, candidate for congressman at large before Col. Lowden, and the candidates arrived.

Cheers for Lowden
It was well past 10 o'clock when Colonel Lowden and party reached the Armory and made their way to the platform amid the cheers of the audience. Mr. Reeve stated that the Armory hall preparations for the meeting had been made by the Lowden-Russel club and he then presented Colonel G. H. Huntoon as the president of that organization. After Colonel Huntoon had suggested and led in three cheers for Lowden he presented F. L. Sharpe to introduce Colonel Lowden. Mr. Sharpe referred to an earlier campaign when he presented John R. Tanner as the next governor of Illinois, and said that he found very great pleasure in presenting Colonel Lowden, who is soon to be chosen the chief executive of this great state.

Colonel Lowden, altho he had made sixteen speeches during the day, made a very strong address, summing up briefly and succinctly what he hoped to accomplish for Illinois if elected at the polls November 7, as he fully expects to be.

Len Small, candidate for treasurer, and Edward J. Brundage, candidate for attorney general, merely expressed appreciation for their cordial reception and because of the lateness of the hour refrained from speech making. The honor of last place on the program was reserved for ex-Senator William E. Mason, who lived up to the country wide reputation he has earned as a campaign orator. Colonel Lowden in his remarks said that Mr. Mason and Colonel Oglesby were the two best campaigners in Illinois.

Women on Platform
Armory Hall is not an easy place to decorate but the committee had certainly worked actively for the hall was really attractive with the flags and banners, the flowers and foliage. On the platform in addition to others mentioned, were Mrs. John J. Reeve, Mrs. E. L. Crouch, Mrs. Chas. B. Graff, Mrs. H. F. Carriel, Mrs. J. H. Danskin, Mrs. George Hollinger, Charles B. Graff and Arthur L. French, who accompanied the candidates from Chapin. At the conclusion of the addresses Chairman Reeve had the several candidates for county office on the Republican ticket appear on the platform. F. B. Henderson, Carl Robinson, Charles Magill and Charles Rose were all there to be identified. A handshaking reception came as a fitting close to the big meeting, when hundreds of men and women moved forward to the platform to meet personally Colonel Lowden and the various other candidates.

With Fife and Drum
The famous fife and drum corps of old soldiers from Galesburg, who accompanied the state's candidates' special, added materially to the enthusiasm of the meeting when they marched into the hall. "Chin-Chin" the G. O. P. elephant, an important adjunct of the party of candidates, was not in evidence at the hall but was safely housed on the special train. Jeffries concert band and a company or marchers escorted Mrs. Howard and Mr. Lindley from the Dunlap for the earlier speaking program, and the band and a still larger company of men served as an escort from the Wabash to Armory hall for the candidates. The special conveying the party was switched from the Wabash to the C. P. & St. L. and will start northward this morning at 8 o'clock. Various stops will be made during the day and there will be a night meeting at Springfield.

Budget System Needed
Colonel Lowden said in part: "Ladies and gentlemen: I must first apologize to you for our apparent tardiness but the fault was not ours. I can only make reparation by being brief tonight and in this way show our appreciation of your patience. If elected governor of this state I shall use my best efforts to establish a real budget system of finances. This is not a high brow measure, as it may sound, but means simply the application of sound business methods instead of the haphazard method in the matter of appropriations. The purpose of such a system is to prune down the expenses of the state. There are various departments of Illinois which need this pruning. In this state we now have 120 agencies—that is, boards or commissions—thru which state money can be spent. Some of these boards could be abolished, some of them cut down and all reorganized. The great business of the federal government is conducted thru ten departments and in Illinois we have 120. These many boards constitute one of the causes for the great growth in the cost of state government.

Democratic Extravagance
"Four years ago a very amiable gentleman, who was a candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, came to you and said if he was elected, the state operation expenses would be curtailed and you listened to him and possibly some of you aided in his election. Now as he is seeking re-election he doesn't say anything about these government costs because during his administration the state tax rate has been increased fifty per cent and the total expenses of the state have been in the last biennial period $37,000,000 more than any preceding period. The expenses of the federal government have grown fast enough in these latter years but they have not increased one fourth as rapidly as the expenses of Illinois.

"These are simply plain facts and figures I am giving you but a state cannot run on indefinitely without curtailment of expenses any more than a business can increase its expenses in a continued and reckless way. I wish that I could offer you a real millennium if elected governor and promise increase in wealth and prosperity to each individual. I cannot make such a promise and fulfill it, but I do promise that if elected that we who are now your candidates will seriously undertake to put the business of this state on a practical and efficient basis.

Private Business Methods for State
"If Governor Dunne comes to this city he will not talk about finances but will direct most of his attack on me. He says that I have had too much experience with some important business enterprises. I say the time has come to use some of the methods that make private business a success in the business of the state. When Governor Dunne was a candidate he had a great deal to say about civil service and when he had held the office for a year there were 320 state employees on the pay roll not under civil service and their appointments were based upon the clause in the new law which provides for such appointments 'in case of extraordinary exigency.' Now there are 620 of these employees and the only 'extraordinary exigency' that I know of is the need of the Democratic party for support. I submit that no sane man in managing the business of a corporation would put 620 people on the pay roll simply to serve the personal interests of the president of the company.

"In LaSalle county recently an attorney for a state board entered a motion for a continuance in a case at court and urged as a reason that when he was appointed attorney for the board that it was a part of the understanding that he was to devote some time to the political interests of the governor. He had been asked to make good that promise. There is no reason why an employee of the state should not serve the state faithfully and efficiently, acting in the same manner as if employed by a private concern.

Lowden to be Neighborly.
"But the lateness of the hour precludes any extended statement along this line and I want to say that if I am elected, that some time when I am rid of this state committee, which is driving me harder than any slave ever was driven below the Mason and Dixon line, if you will invite me to come and visit you I will be more than pleased to do so. You know if elected I will be a sort of neighbor to you over in Springfield and it will be an easy matter to come to Morgan county. I say to you, if the crowds that we have been meeting all thru the state amount to anything, that they mean a tremendous Republican victory in November. You know we have the little elephant "Chin-Chin" with us and in a town in southern Illinois the other day one in the audience asked why we did not add a donkey to collection. My reply was that 'we will add a donkey on November 7 and it will be a dead one.'

Mr. Reeve then presented Len Small, candidate for treasurer. He expressed appreciation for the opportunity to meet Morgan county people and said that the reception of the state candidates had been everywhere enthusiastic in the forty-nine counties visited and the 136 meetings held.

Facts Hurt Democrats.
Edward J. Brundage, candidate for attorney general, after introduction merely bowed his acknowledgments and said because the hour was so late he would simply say "I am glad to meet you."

Former Senator William E. Mason enlivened his address with apt and sprightly stories which kept his audience in laughter much of the time. But in between the stories he made telling arguments in behalf of the return of the Republican party to power. He said that the charge was false that Hughes was abusing Wilson, that the Republican candidate was merely dealing with facts and because facts happened to strike home they hurt. He said that one reason for confidence in Republican success is because the Moose and the Elephant are pulling together and what chance does a Donkey have in such a contest? "The Democrats have not kept their promises," he said. "I do not charge them with lying but they have been unable to keep those promises. They wrote in the platform a one term plank and yet Wilson is seeking re-election. I don't take any stock in this talk about lese-majeste—that one should not talk about the president. I will take the job any time and let you say all you want to about me. The Democrats promised to reduce the cost of living and you know how well they have not succeeded. I stood upon the same platform years ago when Jas. G. Blaine explained about the exemption of American ships from tolls in the Panama canal. Both Republicans and Democrats declared in favor of that bill and yet Wilson went before congress and broke the promise.

The Lack of Revenue.
"They promised to produce revenue for the operation of the government and not one day since the Underwood bill went into effect has it produced enough revenue to meet the expenses of that day. We have good times now but that business property is built upon the bloodshed of a heartache of Europe. Go to the trenches and ask the soldiers—those trenches that were made with American shovels and protected by American barbed wire. Before the war we were shipping $500,000,000 of munitions and since the war began we have added $1,000,000,000 to that sum. From the days of Lincoln to the time of Roosevelt and Taft the Republican party has always insisted upon laws which protect American industries and furnish revenue for the operation of the government. The Democrats mean well but they don't know how to fix a revenue law that does not work against this country and in favor of some other.

Lowden Has Vision.
"It was Governor Oglesby, who said that the Democrats don't know how, it's all we can do to run the government ourselves. If you want to do the best thing for this country you will support the party of protection and prosperity. Give the breadwinners a chance and the country's affairs will be alright. I believe that Frank Lowden will be elected governor by a majority of 200,000. I have known him from the time he was a boy. He is a good lawyer and a good business man and is fitted to manage the business affairs of this state. Frank Lowden has a vision, not like that which poets have, but a vision of practical things. So remember and act upon the old motto of 'Keep your head cool, your feet warm and vote the Republican ticket.'

Tariff Issue Since 1856
Senator E. S. Smith of Springfield, was introduced and said he was present because he was interested in the success of the Republican party and because he wanted to avail himself of the opportunity of thanking Republicans for the generous support accorded him in the election two years ago. He referred to the fact that Mrs. John R. Tanner, widow of a former governor of the state, altho raised a Democrat had recently declared that she will vote for Hughes for the reason that she does not believe Wilson will be able to meet the demands of the presidency after the war.

The speaker referred to the tariff as having been an issue since the days of Fremont and Dayton in 1856. He said that under the present Democratic administration before the war began the imports of this country had reached the great figure of $300,000,000 and the duties paid thereon were $100,000,000 less than had been true under Republican rule. He referred to the fact that Democrats appointed a committee to investigate the cause of unemployment before the war came on and then the war prosperity made this commission unnecessary.

Cicero J. Lindley of Bond county, who has been identified with Illinois politics for many years, has many friends in Jacksonville and a number of them were in the audience last night. Mr. Lindley gave an old time enthusiastic Republican address and he was frequently interrupted with applause. "The women of this state have reason for voting the Republican ticket," said the speaker, "for ours is the party that has given them all the rights they now enjoy. It was the Republican party that first gave the right to Illinois women to hold property. I was told when I looked at your Central Park tonight that this was Jacksonville's home coming and festival week, and I want to tell you that from the indications I have seen that there is going to be a great home coming in Illinois November 7, when all our Republican friends will return to the fold.

Hughes' Record On Labor Laws.
"We have heard a great deal about the Adamson bill as an eight hour law, when in reality it is not an hour bill but a wage bill. It is worth remembering that the first eight-hour bill was passed by the Illinois legislature and when it was appealed to the supreme court Justice Hughes wrote the opinion sustaining it. The pure food bill passed by the legislature was appealed and Justice Hughes wrote the opinion sustaining it. The same thing happened when the law in California fixing the hours for labor for women at 8 hours was appealed. Since 1903 twenty-three states have passed laws regulating the hours of labor and fifteen of these states are Republican. The Adamson bill represents much that is dangerous for if congress has the right to fix the wages in this way for one class of labor they have the right to fix it for all classes.

"A railroad engineer told me a day or two ago that railroad employees are now beginning to see what the Adamson bill really means and that they are for Hughes as against Wilson. They see that if congress has the right to thus increase the pay, that they also have the right to decrease it. It is encouraging for us to remember that a Democratic president since 1860 has never succeeded himself and the same is true of Democratic governors in Illinois.

"Under Democratic administration a hundred munition plants have been built but not a hundred miles of railroad. For the good of this country I would rather see 100 miles of railroad built than 100 munition plants any time. The Democrats have seen what is coming and have been talking anti-dumping bill. All we need is a proper protective tariff and that will take care of all the trouble."

Revenue figures.
The speaker referred to the stamp act which has meant the raising of a war revenue when no war exists. He said this act had resulted in payment of $84,000,000 by the citizens of the U. S. and that four states, including Illinois, had paid $44,000,000 of this sum. These same four states pay $275,000,000 out of a total tax revenue of $515,000,000.

"The Democratic party has never been for uplifting measures. It favored secession; it was against the national bank act; it was against the resumption of specie payment, it was for free silver. It has been continually against tariff and against a tariff commission until recently the need was seen and admitted for this tariff commission. The Democratic congress has approved protective tariff for dyestuffs, and if it is right in this case why should not this be extended to all other commodities that we manufacture?

"The issue of Americanism is not new and today the Republican party stands for the Americanism voiced by Lincoln, McKinley, Logan, Oglesby and others of our loyal and honored leaders."

Chairman Reeve announced that the women have opened headquarters at 710 and 711 Ayers Bank building, where they will be glad to have calls from any women interested or who wish to offer any suggestions. Just before Mr. Lindley closed his speech Chairman Graff of the Morgan County Republican Central committee arrived, accompanied by Andrew Russell, candidate for state auditor, and John G. Oglesby, candidate for lieutenant governor. Mr. Graff drove to White Hall to meet these men. The chairman presented Mr. Russell as a man who needed no introduction to his fellow citizens. Mr. Russell merely expressed his great pleasure at being presented to the audience and said that he would make no attempt at an address but in turn would present John G. Oglesby, the next lieutenant governor of the state and "a worthy son of a worthy sire, Lieutenant Dick Oglesby, famed in Illinois history." He said that Mr. Oglesby had proven himself a forceful orator during the recent days of the state candidates' campaign.

Mr. Russell in "the home of his friends" received a special demonstration. Colonel Oglesby said, "I am a farmer and not here to make a speech, and I will leave that to the other candidates who will soon be here." Notwithstanding this statement, in the few moments allotted to him Colonel Oglesby made a very clear statement of the issues of this campaign and in such well rounded sentences that the audience found the truth of Mr. Russell's statement.

After the War.
Colonel Oglesby said that the candidates had met in the various cities visited quiet companies of men and women who gave evidence that they are giving serious consideration to the questions of the campaign. He said further, "It behooves us to be ready for war but it is just as important for us to make some preparation for the industrial struggle which is sure to come when the war is over unless we have adequate laws upon our statute books to protect our American industries.

"In Illinois we have the saying that the locusts come once in seven years and we used to say that the chills and fever came at certain intervals. So it seems to be with Democratic ascendancy in this state. The party has been in power here twice in twenty years. Four years ago the Democrats went up and down the state promising that if the rascally Republicans were turned out that the Democratic party would give lower taxes, lower state costs and lower costs of living. You all know the facts about living costs. Under the present administration the state tax rate has been increased fifty per cent. The last general assembly spent $37,000,000 more than any Republican general assembly in the history of the state.

Lowden's Good Record.
"I cannot go into details about all the state candidates but I want to speak of the splendid record of Colonel Lowden in his private business life, which gives assurance of the high class business administration which Illinois would have under him as governor. Colonel Lowden began life as a poor boy in Iowa. Due to his own efforts he was able to secure an education. There is no better estimate of a man's real worth than what his neighbors think, and in the recent primary Colonel Lowden received 344 votes in the precinct where many Pullman employees live, against 36 cast for his two opponents. Colonel Lowden's whole life and record gives promise that with him in the executive chair Illinois might confidently and reasonably expect the high type of a business administration."

Attacked Wilson Foreign Policy.
Medill McCormick was next introduced by Chairman Reeve. He had been in advance to reach Jacksonville in advance of some of the other candidates by an auto drive from Winchester with Mr. Frost. Mr. McCormick who has been referred to as the type of a man in politics for what he can give and not what he can get mad clear that he has a wide knowledge of governmental affairs. He talked mainly of national issues assailing President Wilson's foreign policy, especially as related to Mexico. He reviewed the administration's Mexican relations, a history of words and not deeds. He declared that the records show that Wilson has sent two hundred notes to Mexico and yet all these missives have not stopped the slaughter of American citizens. Mr. McCormick impressed his hearers as having a fund of information at his command which will make him of value as a servant of the commonwealth in congress.

WILSON REPLIES TO G. O. P. CHARGE

who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation. He shows himself a provincial, he shows that he himself does not know the various sections of his own country, he shows that he has shut his own heart up in a little province, and that those who do not seek the special interests of that province are to him sectional, while he alone is national. That is the depth of anti-patriotic feeling.

"And that is my interest in good roads, for, my fellow citizens my present interest is chiefly in the nationalization of America.

"And we suddenly find that we are face to face with the problem of assembling these elements in the sense in which the mechanic assembles the parts of a machine. And having assembled those elements to put them together for the creation of one unconquerable force to which the world shall hereafter look for most of its forward impulse, for most of its ideal principles, for most of its exemplified practice of liberty. And therefore, the thing that I am more interested in than anything else in these days is the forces that make for drawing America together into a great spiritual unit.

"Now, my fellow citizens, we have had time and opportunity until the present to do pretty much what we wanted in America and to do different things in different parts of America. But just so soon as this great European war is over, America has got to stand for one thing and only one thing in the world, and she must be ready with united force. We can't play with the elements of our life any more.

"America came into existence, my fellow citizens, not in order to show the world the most notable example it had ever had of the accumulation and use of material wealth but in order to show the way to mankind in every part of the world to justice and freedom and liberty. So that the words I want you to carry in your mind in connection with this nationalization, getting all the fibres of this great vital people united in a single organism; Second, mobilization, getting them so related to each other, so coordinated, so organized, so united that when they move, they move as a single great irresistible conquering force. And the third word that I want you to consider is the word that I suppose affords the good roads cause are these: First, key of doing these things. That word is the word co-operation. I wish that each one of us could fix in his mind the difference between the way we have been trying to do things and the way we ought to do things by combination, by setting off one powerful group against another, by setting up groups in particular industries or spheres of our life which try to exclude all other groups by the power or by the method of their destroying competition. That is not the way to build a nation together. That is the way to build it up into warring elements.

"Instead of exclusive combinations, I want to see universal co-operation. "There is one field in which we are particularly sluggish in respect of this. I mean the relations between capital and labor. Nothing can be for the interest of capital that is not in the interest of labor; and nothing can be in the interest of labor which is not in the interest of capital. If men want to get rich, they must have human relationships with those who help them to get rich.

"I pray God that their eyes may be opened and that they may see that the future of this country lies in their co-operation, open, candid, cordial, and not in their antagonism and that if they will once get together and plan in the same spirit the same things, the industry of America will go forward by leaps and bounds such as we have never yet conceived. Some times it is necessary in order to arrest attention to pull men up with a round turn and say 'stop, look, listen' because presently if you don't the great forces of society will correct the things that have gone wrong. Society is the jury. The parties are not going to settle. The nation is going to settle and I am counsel for the nation.

"Now 'talking thru the hat' ought to be a dead industry. It ought to be discouraged by silence and empty halls; and every man ought to have as a motto over the stage from which he speaks, these simple and familiar words 'put up or shut up.' I am ready to take my own medicine, if I don't put up, I am ready to shut up.

"I want to leave a very solemn thought in your minds. America is now about to experience her rebirth. We have been making American pieces for the sake of the pieces. Now we have got to conceive in pieces for the sake of the whole and for the sake of the world, because, ladies and gentlemen, there is a task ahead of us for which we must be very soberly prepared. I have said, and shall say again, that when the great present war is over, it will be the duty of America to join with the other nations of the world in some kind of league for the maintenance of peace. Now, America was not a party to this war and the only terms upon which we and the only terms to a league, almost all the other powerful members of which were engaged in the war and made infinite sacrifices when we apparently made none, are the only terms which we desire, namely, that America shall not stand for national aggression, but shall stand for the just conceptions and bases of peace for the competitions of merit alone, and for the generous rivalry of liberty.

"In these two trying years that have just gone by we have forborne, we have not allowed provocation to disturb our judgments, we have seen to it that America kept her poise when all the rest of the world seemed to have lost its poise. Only upon the terms of retaining that poise and using the splendid force which always comes with poise can we hope to play the beneficent part in the history of the world which I have just now intimated. So my fellow countrymen, build upon these new roads in the construction of which the federal government is now to play so large a part, the spirit of nationality, the spirit of co-operation, the spirit of liberty, the power with which only a free people knows how to exercise."

Keefe-McBride

The marriage of Miss Helen McBride and Mr. Eugene Keefe was solemnized Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, 1248 South East street, the Rev. F. A. McCarty officiating. The ceremony was employed. The couple were unattended and stood in the parlor before a bower of green as the minister spoke the words which united them for life. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue. The young people will be at home after November 1 at 1301 South East street, in a house already prepared by the groom.

Green and white were the colors used in decoration and in the dining room bride's roses were used to pretty effect. A two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. F. W. Holzgrafe and daughter, Louise, of Havana were among the guests, as was John I. McBride of Chicago, the bride's brother.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John C. McBride and is a young woman of refinement and charm, deserving well the many words of congratulation she will receive. She received her education in the schools of Jacksonville and for several years has held the position of book-keeper with the firm of Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keefe of North Diamond street. He received his education in the city schools and later attended Northwestern university. He now holds a responsible position with the Jenkinson-Bode Co., and has at all times proved himself a young man of worth and integrity.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS PEOPLE LOOK TO ILLINOIS

Great Interest Taken In Watching Campaign for County Taxes To Aid Work.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—Illinois is in the spot light this month, so far as the nationwide movement against tuberculosis is concerned. Anti-tuberculosis workers throughout the country are watching the campaigns for county tuberculosis sanatoria that are being conducted this fall in seven counties—Kane, Ogles, Adams, Livingston, Morgan, Rock Island and LaSalle.

When the election returns are announced, Illinois will have taken a great progressive step in providing local institutional care for the tuberculous or she will have announced to the contrary that she is not yet ready to make provision for the thousands of consumptives who come from every walk of life in this state.

The campaign in each of the seven counties is in charge of local committees which are assisted by the Illinois State Board of Health and the Illinois State Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Bankers, merchants, ministers, club women, farmers, shop workers, school children and many others are actually assisting these local committees. Much of the time just now is being spent in perfecting the campaign organization in every precinct and in carrying out a countywide campaign of education about tuberculosis and how it may be successfully treated in a sanatorium. Funds from Red Cross Seal campaigns in 1915 and previous years are being used in this work.

Illinois now ranks far behind Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Iowa and other neighboring states in the matter of local provision for consumptives.

Officers of the State Anti-Tuberculosis Association estimated today that there are nearly 100,000 consumptives now living in Illinois and they declared that the momentary loss to the state each year because of the deaths from tuberculosis will probably exceed $64,000,000.

WILL FIGHT FOR AMENDMENT.
Chicago, Oct. 12.—Oscar F. Nelson, state factory inspector announced tonight that he would begin a fight for an amendment to the state child labor law to prohibit the employment of children under 16 years in factories except during vacations.

GOVERNOR DUNNE TO SPEAK THIS AFTERNOON

Chief Executive Will Make Address In Park at 3:45 O'Clock—Program Will Begin at 1:30 O'Clock.

Governor Edward F. Dunne, chief Democratic day speaker, will be in Jacksonville this afternoon and will speak in Central Park at 3:45 o'clock. A reception to Democrats will be held in the Ayers bank building following the speaking.

The governor will address a convention in Springfield at 1 o'clock and will come to this city by automobile. He will be met at the terminus of East State street by a delegation of Democrats and by the band. In the parade will be mounted marshals, Jeffries' band, the reception committee, the democrats in line, and automobiles, in the order named.

The band will open the central central park program promptly at 1:30 o'clock. A special address to women will then be given by Mrs. Antoinette Funk. Mrs. Funk is chairman of the Women's Progressive Campaign Committee and her address will be full of interest.

At the Woman's tent in the afternoon, Miss Grace Osborne, field worker for the Anti-Tuberculosis society made an address in which she explained the purpose and workings of the Glacklin law. Miss Osborne also gave some little known facts about tuberculosis as a communicable disease. Pictures she gave of instances of hundreds of persons who went to New Mexico and Colorado for a change of climate and because of lack of funds soon died, were startling indeed. Altogether it was an address to awaken interest in the minds of any in the audience not already alive to the danger which lurks in "the great white plague."

THE UTILITY BOARD
OPPOSES METER RENTAL

Springfield, Ill. Oct. 12.—The custom of charging a monthly rental for electric and gas meters has met the disapproval of the Illinois Utilities Commission, and the commission during the last year has lent its influence toward a total elimination of what they have called "an unfairly discriminatory meter rental charge."

"During the last few years, among smaller utilities in particular, a custom has grown of making an extra charge of 25 cents a month for each meter on a consumer's premises owned by the utility," says a recent statement of the commission. "This meter rental charge is usually in addition to an adequate minimum monthly charge. The commission has taken the position that a meter is a portion of the equipment which should be furnished by the utility without cost to the consumer, that a charge of 25 cents a month is excessive and that the general rates for utility service should be sufficient to provide for the fixed charges of all meters.

In a recent case involving the Homer Electric Light and Power company at Homer, Ill., the commission found that a number of meters were owned by the consumers themselves. To these the charges for electric current were lower than to those to whom the company furnished the meters. The commission thereupon ordered the Homer company to acquire as soon as possible all the privately owned meters. Its order contained this statement:

"Individual ownership of electric meters fails to meet the approval of this commission and such ownership is to be discouraged.

Morgan county votes upon the establishment of a sanitarium at the November election and her time will be devoted in the interest of the cause. CELLULOID DRESSING GREAT IMPROVEMENT

NEW METHOD OF HANDLING LARGE WOUNDS EXPLAINED

London Surgeons Use Perforated Celluloid in Preference to Lint as First Covering for the Raw Wound—Plan Has Been Successfully Tried Out.

London, Oct. 12.—Opinion among surgeons and nurses is practically unanimous in favor of the advantages of a new method of dressing large and painful wounds, whereby a thin layer of perforated celluloid is substituted for lint as the first covering for the raw wound. The plan was tried successfully first by Sir Alimoth Wright at St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington, and now promises to become generally adopted.

The celluloid, first rendered soft and pliable by being soaked in a 20 per cent solution of carbolic acid and then washed in a weak salt solution, is laid on the raw wound, the perforations being so numerous that it seems mostly holes. Fine lint soaked in a 5 per cent solution of common salt in sterile water is then placed over the celluloid after which firm bandages are applied. Owing to the celluloid much firmer pressure can be used than with ordinary dressings. One surgeon, explaining the advantages of the celluloid dressing further, said: "In many cases the healing of a large wound is actually retarded by the general bodily depression resulting from the pain caused by bandages, when laid directly on the raw wound, must inevitably, in the process of removal, tear away from their site certain of the tiny new cells which are formed by nature in affecting the cure. Every cell thus destroyed has to be remade, and so healing is delayed."

ANITA STEWART TODAY AT SCOTT'S THEATER

Beautiful Actress Appears in Russian Photoplay, "The Suspect"—Miss Stewart Wears Exquisite Gowns, Displaying Lovely Creations of Fashion.

Perhaps of all the beautiful stars on the screen today there is no one who would make beautiful gowns more attractive than Anita Stewart goes in "The Suspect," the new Viagraph Blue Ribbon feature at Scott's Theatre this afternoon and evening.

Miss Stewart wears a number of elaborate and exquisite garments of every description and throughout the photoplay each succeeding dress appears more beautiful than the one before.

One afternoon gown is of an ivory-colored panne velvet. It is trimmed with beaded chiffon from which a long basque-waist is also fashioned. The skirt is perfectly plain and slightly fluted at the waist. The edge of the neck and sleeves is trimmed with narrow bands of black fur.

The next gown is of rose crepe-de-chine and Georgette crepe. The waist is made separately and falls in a long panel to the ankles in the back. This part of the waist is also of rose and beaded in tiny golden beads.

An evening gown of bands of emerald green chiffon and bands of silver beads is particularly lovely. The skirt is fashioned completely by these wide bands, which alternate, while the waist is composed of a very high girdele of the silver beaded cloth with bands over the arms. With this creation of the Parisian modiste's art Miss Stewart wears a silver tulle scarf about her shoulders, which are left exposed. The evening cloak which covers this mystery of elegance is a beautiful American beauty velvet. It is made with simple but graceful lines and almost reaches the feet. A high waist line is formed in this wrap by a wide band of gold and silver beads. The collar and cuffs of this cloak are of black fox.

One sweet frock which is charmingly worn by Miss Stewart is a pale blue Georgette crepe. The skirt is very wide and made by a series of accordion-pleated ruffles. At each side of the skirt is a wide panel of the same material, which is also a series of accordion-pleated ruffles. The waist is made in a blouse style with long wing sleeves. The little square neck of this frock is edged with narrow black fox fur. The skirt is somewhat short, allowing a fleeting glimpse of Miss Stewart's feet, which are encased in mouse-gray satin slippers.

Julia Swayne Gordon, who also portrays one of the leading roles, wears a number of exquisite creations. One wrap which was especially beautiful was a gold satin opera cloak brocaded in gold velvet which is greatly raised from the satin itself. The sleeves are very full and fashioned in a wing effect. A large collar of blue fox is used with this evening wrap.

Perhaps no outfit is more becoming to Miss Stewart than the riding habit which she wears in a number of scenes. This habit is of the latest vogue and very attractive.

PETE HAXTON IS OUT.

Walter, alias "Pete" Haxton is again able to stand out in the open, look up at the stars and breathe fresh free air. For some time Haxton has been incarcerated in the county jail, having been convicted in the county court on the charge of selling liquor in local option territory.

Thursday Paul Samuel and John M. Butler, attorneys for Haxton went to Springfield and asked for a writ of supersedeas from the Appellate court which was granted. The order was issued and bond fixed at $500, and this bond was given and Haxton released. He will be at liberty pending the decision of the court which will be given probably next April.

Attorneys Samuel and Butler based their main contention on the overruling by Judge Thomson of their motion to quash the indictment because the names of the witnesses were not written on the back of the indictment by the foreman. They had other points but this was the main one. They feel much elated over the fact and are in hopes that a favorable decision in the case will be returned by the Appellate court.

Governor Dunne will speak in Central Park today at 3:45

BABY BEEF POINTS DISCUSSED BY MR. SEASS

Practical Livestock Man Discusses Methods He Has Used Successfully—Feeders Too Careless in Selecting Stock.

At the Chapin farmers' institute L. D. Seass of Arthur gave his address on baby beef production.

Mr. Seass spoke at the afternoon session. He first spoke on the need of caution about buying in the large markets. Scalpers sell all kinds of stuff, and a great deal being next to worthless to the farmer as a feeder. The best plan is to raise the calves on the farm if the proper kind of cows are selected as a foundation stock and a good sire used. Calves of a breed that show a uniform type will develop into a bunch that will sell for the high dollar. It is very important that the calves have the right kind of surrounding and shelter and be kept quiet. Don't shout and pop the whip and keep them excited but learn them to be gentle and be kind to them.

The ideal feed is ensilage and other feeds that will make up a balanced ration. Ensilage and alfalfa, or soy beans or cotton seed meal, any one of the things rich in protein should be used. One common mistake is to give the cattle too much range. It looks good to see the cattle at play sometimes but it is expensive play. My own experience demonstrated the fact to perfection when we cut our lot into two lots. The cattle made greater gains. All they need is plenty of good water and the right amount of feed and the right kind and be kept quiet.

The length of time to finish a bunch of calves is about eight months. Red clover is a good feed but not equal to alfalfa. One of the most surprising facts brought out by the speaker was in regard to the apparent need of earth for cattle to eat. They will consume a pound a day when on full feed and seems to be indispensable to assist in digesting the food.

To prove it, Mr. Seass fed a bunch of calves on a concrete floor where they could not get dirt to eat, and then after so many days had elapsed he gave them loose earth in feed boxes and the scales told the story only too well. Salt of course was at hand at all times for the calves to eat or lick as they desired. Mr. Seass' remarks on baby beef was based on the actual experience of feeding and not simply theory. He cautioned farmers against going in to the cattle business at all unless they went in to win. His remarks were received applause at the close.

REGISTRATION DAY.

Voters should remember that there are two registration days, October 17 and 31. Voters should see that their names are on the poll books and thus save a great deal of annoyance on election day. The laws of registration apply just the same to women as to men voters and women who expect to cast their ballots and help in the selection of the next president of the United States should not fail to register.

GOOD PERFORMANCE AT GRAND

Crowded houses greeted the Boyle-Woolfolk Musical Comedy company at the Grand Thursday afternoon and night. The company has been booked for three days with a daily matinee. The opening bill was The Time, The Place and The Girl. It is one of the catchiest musical comedies and was first seen here with Arthur Deagon in the role of Johnny Hicks. All of the old songs sounded as good on Thursday as they did when we first heard them.

Guy Voyer in the role of Johnny Hicks proved a most capable comedian. Mr. Voyer is funny without trying to be and he met with unusual favor with the audience. He was given capable support by the company. Special mention must be made of Florence Berry, Harriet Lee, Jack Price Jones, Jerome Elanagan and Walter Poulter. The chorus was sprightly and put lots of "pep" in their work. If you can't get your money's worth with the Boyle-Woolfolk company at the price they charge we don't know what you want for thirty-five cents.

A GOOD SUGGESTION

Yesterday evening a conversation with Isaac Watson, the veteran soup maker and a Journal reporter, Supt. H. C. Montgomery of the State School for the Blind, made a very sensible suggestion. He said it would be an excellent plan at the next state fair to have Mr. Watson there with a big force of assistants and kettles and make burgoo soup in great quantities for the welfare of the people who want something nourishing, palatable, and reasonable in expense, clean in condition and worth eating. At the same time it would be a good plan to have persons from different localities take lessons in the fine art of soup making.

While Mr. Watson is not at all the only man who can make burgoo soup there are not many and very few, who can make as good an article as he turns out. He is in good condition now but is not at all young and he would be willing to give lessons in the art at which he is such a success.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE ATTRACTS MANY

Addresses Made on Livestock, School Needs and Household Economics—List of Exhibits is Extensive.

The Franklin farmers' institute opened a two day session Thursday afternoon in the Christian church. The exhibit in the boys' corn jarring class was opened an hour before the formal session began and attracted a good deal of interest. This contest was conducted by Charles R. Gibson.

After the company had joined in singing America, the invocation was pronounced and the address of welcome was delivered by the chairman. A musical selection was furnished by the Darley family and then L. D. Seass of Arthur was introduced for his address on livestock. This was followed by a report on the state fair domestic science school given by Miss Ruth Hembrough. A vocal solo followed by Miss Della Rees, then Mrs. J. M. Daniels, who has on several occasions before addressed the institute at Franklin, spoke on household science. Mrs. Daniels handled the subject in a most practical sort of way, offering many suggestions for household management and economy.

The evening session began at 7 o'clock with a violin solo by William Seymour, with Miss Alma Leake as accompanist. Mrs. Daniel gave another brief address along the line of household economics which was very well received. A reading was given by Miss Viola Thompson and then Mr. Seass was introduced for a second address, his theme being "The Needs of Our Schools." Some facts from both of Mr. Seass' addresses are given below.

Mr. Seass had livestock for his theme. Mr. Seass is a practical farmer and stock raiser, having done business on an extensive scale for many years on his own farm near Arthur. His statements, therefore, carried more weight than would be true of a man whose knowledge of his business was solely of a theoretical kind. He began by stating that every day 13,000 beef cattle, 21,000 hogs, 4,600 sheep and 200,000 pounds of poultry are consumed by the people of the U. S. With this vast daily consumption it is not at all surprising that shortage in the visible supply of cattle to the amount of $18,000,000 exists.

Primitive Methods.

Continuing Mr. Seass said, "One of the great difficulties with cattle feeding is that we apply primitive methods. The farmer is using the advance methods of agriculture but is content with following old systems in his cattle feeding. One example of the lack of care used is in the manner the average feeder buys his cattle. A very large percentage of this business is done thru order blanks. The commission man in Chicago sends out blank orders to stock men and they fill in the number of cars and the kind of cattle they want for their farms. Then the order is mailed in and the commission man ships down from one to twelve cars, according to the order, and the feeder expects to make money by putting feed into these cattle, with which he used no personal care in selection.

"What would you think of a farmer who followed this same method in the purchase of horses? What one of you here if he wanted to buy a span of mules for general farm work, would think of telephoning to a dealer in horses and telling him to send over a team and that you would remit the check by mail? Yet often the very man who will not buy a horse or a team on the judgment of a dealer is willing to take his chances on buying thousands of dollars' worth of beef cattle from the commission. At the big stock yards there are scalpers constantly doing business there and they all have their shares in the profits which come from the cattle that you and I ship to Chicago. The scalper is just as much benefited to the producer of beef cattle as the chicken bug is to the farmer, both of them are parasites, producing nothing and living off the farmer.

"One trouble with the cattle raisers is that they do not make enough study of beef animals and are not thoroughly conversant with the best types for their business. How many of you can touch a steer and show where the prime rib roast cuts are found? The same is true with reference to other cuts and yet this matter is one of prime importance so far as the value of the steer is concerned and the cost at which meat can be produced. The cattle feeder should study these things from books and observation. One good method is to go to a packing house and look at the carcasses and find out the type of animals that bring the most money when dressed.

Should Know About Product.

"The men who engage in a manufacturing business look ahead. They know just what will be the appearance of their finished product and how it will compare with other products of a competitive kind when ready for market. The cattle feeder should occupy the same position. He is a manufacturer of beef and should be able to know when he examines a steer what the finished product will be after that animal has had a certain kind of feed for a certain period of time. The records of the experiment stations at Lincoln, Neb., furnish a fine example of differing results in feeding. There two steers, one of them a scrub and the other a high class animal, were fed the same amounts from the same trough and all conditions were just alike. When the period of experimentation was over the records showed that it cost $10.98 more per hundred to put meat on the scrub than on the high class animal, $10.98 for the production of 100 lbs. of beef is a ruinous figure in itself and to have it cost that much more per hundred than for the good animal shows why so many cattle feeders fail."

Mr. Seass, as stated above, has been a feeder for a long period. During recent years he has devoted his attention almost exclusively to baby beef. Formerly he bought calves along in the late fall or early winter, but in later years he found it more to his advantage to raise the calves and that is what he is doing on his farm. The calves born in April or May are fed until August or September of the following year, so that at market time they are about sixteen months old. Mr. Seass has found that Herfords or Black Angus are the best for this branch of the cattle feeding business. He says that Shorthorn cattle are excellent for beef but that the Shorthorn does not develop as rapidly when young as the other breeds mentioned and so for baby beef production the Herfords and Angus cattle have some advantages over the Shorthorns.

Country Schools.

At the night session Mr. Seass had an entirely different theme, "The Need of our Country Schools." He has been for years a school director and so his remarks were based mainly upon observation and experience. He spoke first of the need of securing a well prepared teacher—one with genuine interest in her work and with some understanding of the heart of the country school boy. Next he referred to the necessity of securing directors who will give some study to school equipment and affairs and who are willing to support the teacher in the work. He spoke of the equipment of the school building and its relation to the health of the pupils. It costs no more to have seats that are of the right size for the children than it does to have the other kind and yet this matter is vitally related to the health, especially of the younger pupils. He spoke too, of the need for proper attention to ventilation. Other practical themes were touched upon and the address was one which all could understand and appreciate had relation to conditions right in their home vicinity.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—The Boston Americans firmly clamped the championship laurels of the baseball universe upon their brows here this afternoon when they defeated the Brooklyn Nationals by a score of four to one in the fifth and final game of the world series of 1916. The greatest gathering in the history of the American national sport witnessed the victory 42,620 fans departing after the contest convinced that the Boston team was the baseball machine par excellence of recent years.

As a result of the four games to one contest over the standard bearers of the National League Boston is tonight celebrating its fifth victory in world series since 1903.

The victory over Brooklyn in the final meeting of the teams was so clean cut and decisive there was left no ground for argument. Before the speed and curves of Ernest Shore Brooklyn was well nigh hopeless, while Jeff Pfeffer, the last hope of the National Leaguers proved unequal to the task of holding Boston in check.

Altho the Nationals were first to score, their advantage was short-lived and once the Bostonians unleashed their heavy batting artillery, any doubt regarding the outcome of the game was dissipated, so closely did Shore hold the Brooklyn clan in the mystery of his deceptive delivery.

The invaders from Greater New York were able to score only three hits for a similar total of bases and the solitary run scored was unearned. It was the result of a pass, a sacrifice, an out and a passed ball. Boston on the other hand collected ten bases on seven hits and two of its four runs were earned.

Altho the contest was played before a record throng of fans, there was only a moderate amount of enthusiasm, the chilling weather and the ease with which Boston disposed of their opponents, dulling the edge of such outbursts, as sprang from grandstands and bleachers at the more thrilling points of the game. The day was bitter cold with a piercing wind from the east, and while the sun shone from a cloudless sky, there was little warmth in its rays. The 42,620 spectators, who paid $88,873 to witness the triumph of the American League champions came wearing overcoats, fur wraps and heavy gloves.

Aside from Shore's clever hurling and a sensational running shoe top catch by Wheat off Shore in the fifth and its mate by Lewis in the eighth, when he robbed Merkle, batting for Pfeffer, of an apparently sure double, the game was devoid of feature plays.

Immediately after Scott had clinched the championship by gobbling Mowrey's short fly for the final out of the game, the younger element among the spectators rushed upon the field and fell in behind the royal rosters and their band for a parade. On the first circuit of the diamond they captured President J. J. Lannin, of the Boston Club, and then crossed the field after President C. H. Ebbets of Brooklyn. Amid the cheers of the fans the rival club executives joined arms and led the march while thousands in the stands stayed to watch the celebration. The players however did not wait to take part in the impromptu ceremonies, going to their dressing rooms and there were few if any congratulations. Many of the fans shook hands with the Boston players and with Manager Carrigan who said again that he had retired from professional ball with today's game.

As was the case in yesterday's game Brooklyn was the first to score its only and unearned run came in the second session, when Shore issued his only pass of the day, franking Cutshaw to first. Mowrey sacrificed him to second from which point he moved to third on Olson's infield out and scored when Shore uncovered the plate with a passed ball.

Boston tied the score in their half of the same inning, when Lewis tripled to left and came home as Wheat threw the ball recovered from Gardner's high fly wide of the plate in an effort to get Lewis at the plate.

The Red Sox added two more in the next turn at bat. Cady hit a bouncer over Daubert's head. Hooper walked, Cady scored when Olson threw Janvrin's grounder into center field in an attempted double play. Hooper romped home from third on Shorten's hit over second. The fourth and final run was manufactured in the fifth on Hooper's single, and Janvrin's double. After that the Red Sox, aided by Shore's airtight twirling, played defensive ball, and the Superbas never threatened.

The attendance and receipts for today's game established a new record in this department of world's series history, supplanting the figures made in the same park Oct. 11, a year ago when the amounts were a few hundred less. Neither the total attendance nor money taken in at the box office surpassed the banner records made in 1911 and 1912 but the amount divided among the players establishes a new standard for money won by the contestants.

The attendance for the five games this season amounted to 162,359 and the receipts $385,590.50. Of this sum the players received $162,927.45; each club $92,052.02 and the National Commission $38,559.05. The Boston Club as winners divided $97,576.47 on a basis of 25 shares, which the players are understood to have agreed upon as the method of apportionment. This would allow $3,910.26 a share. The twenty-three Brooklyn players as losers divide $63,170.96 into equal shares of $2,834.82 each. Owing to the fact that there are more players to share in the winners' money this year the individual share is not a record.

GEN. MACOMB RETIRES.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—After more than forty years of honorable service, filled with adventure in foreign parts, Brig. Gen. Montgomery M. Macomb, whose last assignment was as president of the War College in this city, was placed on the retired list of the army today on account of age.

Gen. Macomb is a native of Detroit, and graduated from West Point in 1874. During his first year in the army he served on frontier duty in Alaska, followed by a year as aid-de-camp to Gen. Meigs in Europe. Then came a period of nearly seven years in charge of the United States geological explorations in the far West. Later he was in charge of similar surveys and explorations in Central America. In the Spanish war he took part in the Porto Rican campaign and later he saw active service in suppressing the Philippine insurrection. During the Russo-Japanese war Gen. Macomb served as military attaché with the Russian army in Manchuria and was present at the great battles of Liaoyang, Sha River and Mukden.

PHILADELPHIA

Vern Hundly and family have left our village and will work for Will Scholfield near Elm Grove.

Charlie German has moved into the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. C. W. Jones.

Mrs. Charles Lazenby has taken up her abode in Jacksonville.

Harry Cuntas is very proud of that new boy. Mother and son doing nicely at Dr. Day's hospital.

Nicholas F. Gibbs of City Place, Jacksonville, departed this life Tuesday morning at 4 a. m., Oct. 10. The deceased was stricken with apoplexy Saturday morning, Oct. 7. Funeral service will take place in the Baptist church in Jacksonville at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, interment in Diamond Grove. The Masonic order will have charge of the service at the grave.

Sunday morning a special service will be given at the Christian church in this place in honor of old folks day. We therefore thru the press extend an invitation to all in and around this community to be present at this service. Come and meet your friends and enjoy the fellowship together.

Our Jacksonville friends are putting on a regular old fashion fair this week which is being enjoyed by a large number. In and adjoining the territory of Jacksonville are some animals worthy of note with an exhibit of such it will encourage others to improve their herd also.

What is the matter with our fellow farmers west of Jacksonville in permitting our roads to be neglected when a few hours at the proper time would place them in excellent condition. We will have to take our hats off to our friends east of Jacksonville when it comes to the roads being properly dragged. Come on, boys, can't stand for that.

Some are attending the series of meetings now in progress at the Christian church in Winchester this week.

Thomas Dodsworth and Alva Stainforth are attending the grand order of Masons which is being held in Chicago this week.

Louis Jik started to make a runaway race of it in the American association this season, but tripped up after a few weeks out. Later the Colonels started a brilliant comeback which finally landed the pennant.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look At Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish—full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, does not eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow. But get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

"WOMEN WILL SUPPORT HUGHES"—MRS. HOWARD

In Forceful Address Chicago Speaker Attacks Record of Wilson Administration.

At the Republican rally in Armory hall Thursday night Mrs. Harriet Howard of Chicago, who is here in the interest of organization work among Republican women, was introduced by Chairman John J. Reeve to give the opening address.

Mrs. Howard, who has spent some years in Germany and who also has first hand information of conditions in Mexico, made an exceedingly forceful address. She pointed out very clearly that there is no good judgment behind the phrase of thankfulness to President Wilson for keeping us out of the war. She expressed her confidence in the ability of women to use their suffrage rights intelligently and to vote upon the issues of the coming campaign in accordance with the present facts and a look toward the future. Some paragraphs from Mrs. Howard's address are given below:

There are three kinds of women voters; those who were born to suffrage; those who acquired suffrage; and those who have had suffrage thrust upon them. I belong to the latter class; for while theoretically I believed that women should have the vote, I never lifted a finger to help them get it. Other women, more far-sighted and more devoted than I, gave their lives to the work of securing suffrage for all women. In Illinois, thanks to the action of a generous legislature, they succeeded in securing that degree of suffrage which we enjoy today; and from the time that I have had the right to vote on any subject, I have voted as wisely as I was able, whenever I might. But there my activity stopped until within the past three and a half years, I have been more and more roused by the things that have happened to our country; until I am enlisted in the ranks of women who are making the fight for the extension of the right of suffrage to all the women of the United States and, indirectly, of the world; and who are seeking to justify themselves as voters in the eyes of the world by the wisdom of their use of the ballot in the coming national election.

There were many great issues to be weighed and decided in this campaign; to try to touch upon them all would be to undertake a task impossible of fulfillment. But there are two issues that to my mind are the greatest of all for women to consider, and of these the first is the kind of peace we shall have in the land of the free and the home of the brave. Shall it be peace with honor, or peace at the price of honor?

But in the course of the last three years I have had many times to ask myself what blight had fallen upon our nation; that we could complacently permit the cruelest of wrongs, the most dastardly of abuses, to be inflicted upon our people and to go unavenged and unchecked while we, who were safe looked on the dead and mutilated bodies of our men and the bodies of our women ravished and little children foully murdered, and polluted our mouths with the blasphemy "Thank God for Wilson—He kept us out of war!"

Did he? What is war? I will quote the words of one abler than I in terse analysis: "War means a clash between the armed forces of two countries—Under President McKinley we had a war with Spain. Under President Wilson we are assured that we have had 'peace' with Mexico. (But) during the war with Spain fewer Americans were killed by the Spaniards than have been killed by Mexicans during the present 'peace' with Mexico."

We love catch phrases; but we sometimes pervert their use. "Safety first," when it is a warning against the danger of our own life or that of another, is a good thing in this world of hurry. But what of "Safety first" if it means our own safety regardless of the needs of another? Does the mother who sees her child run into the path of danger and who must risk her own life to save it, hold back and cry "Safety first?"

But as for Wilson—"He kept us out of war."

War with whom? With any European power

Certainly not Germany. She is already sufficiently occupied; and even were that not the case, she desires no war with us. She has felt that we should be friends because we have common ideals of social justice, peaceful commercial development, scientific progress; and then, she would prefer not to be at war with a land where so many of her former children dwell; for she knows, however much may have been said in this country, that if the time of conflict between her and this country should ever come she would find fighting against her in the first ranks those children of hers who have ever sprung into the position at the call of the land of their adoption. She has not even wished us to fight for her, but only to be fair, neutral in deed as well as in word. As for the Allies, could any of them wish to be at war with us? Hardly; for then there would be no one to continue to supply them with munitions while they keep their factories going and increase their foreign trade.

No, friends. If we thank God for Wilson at all, it will have to be for some other ground. Perhaps the Republicans ought to be thankful for him because of the example he, a Democrat, has given of what a President of the United States ought not to be.

Those present who count upon securing the woman's vote in endorsement of the present administration forget that to a true woman her honor is her dearest possession. She will never so conduct herself as to invite insult; but she will die rather than submit to outrage. The honor of a nation is as sacred as the honor of a woman. As purity is the first point in the honor of a woman, so the protection of the lives of her citizen is the first point in the honor of a nation. As a woman will not invite insult, a nation wisely governed will not invite attack; by the steadfast justice of its dealings and its wise friendliness it will merit and command the respect and good will of the world. But if this just and friendly nation be attacked without cause, and the lives of her citizens taken and their rights trampled underfoot, she must take her stand in their defense or forever forfeit her right to a place among the honorable nations of the world.

Is that the fate we crave for the land where our fathers died?

As for the second great issue upon which I wish to touch tonight—the woman voter's responsibility in the present campaign—our political situation with reference to the woman's vote at the coming presidential election, I will say this: But for my profound faith in woman's ability to decide wisely and act energetically in a period of crisis, I could find it in my heart to wish that her first opportunity in national affairs had come at a time when the outcome of the election was less vital; that her first vote for president might have been cast at a time less fraught with danger to the nation should her decision be unwise. But I have profound faith in the judgment of women, that makes them to distinguish between false issues and true; and I know that when a woman realizes that a great responsibility rests upon her she is capable of making any sacrifice in order to discharge her duty faithfully.

Women of Illinois, we are making history this year. By the use you make of your franchise at this important election we shall vindicate the faith of the champions of our suffrage, or justify those who have opposed it. I appeal to you to realize the grave responsibility that rests upon us all; to realize that unless we show our ability to recognize the greatness of the issues and decide with wisdom and courage upon the course we shall pursue the year 1916 will stand out in history as the one called us, and we failed in the performance of our duty.

I do not fear that we shall fail, I look to you, one and all, to go to the polls on election day, and for the craven cry "Thank God for Wilson—he kept us out of war" to make the country ring and echo to the cry, "Thank God for a chance to vote for Hughes, who will give us Peace with Honor."

CIGAR MAKERS CLAIM LEAF TOBACCO CORNER

PHILIPPINE PRICES FORCED TO A FAMINE LEVEL

Unprecedented Demand in This Country for Leaf Tobacco and Increasing Demand for Philippine Cigars is Said to be Responsible for Record Prices.

Manila, Oct. 12.—Smaller cigar manufacturers of Manila—and they are legion, principally Chinese—have appealed to the government to break what they call a corner on leaf tobacco which has forced the prices of this article to a famine level. Two European firms which have put close to two million dollars into the purchase of leaf tobacco are accused of being back of the corner. One of these firms is exporting extensively to Holland while the other is holding its stock locally for big prices.

The new Philippine National bank, in which the Philippine government is the largest stockholder, has come in for criticism at the hands of a section of the local press for financing the alleged corner but it is known that one of the firms involved is not a client of the bank. Directors of the bank furthermore declare that if evidence can be deduced that any loan made was to foster a corner, the loan will be cancelled forthwith.

Director of internal revenue Raftery who is the government official closest to the tobacco industry, declares that the unprecedented demand in the United States for leaf tobacco and the increasing American demand for Philippine cigars were responsible for the record-breaking purchases and prices in the Philippine tobacco trade.

He pointed out that up to July 15, there had been an increase of 440 per cent in the shipments of Philippine leaf tobacco to the United States. This indicated the immense demand and was a reason for high prices and scarcity of tobacco leaf. Competing buyers from Manila are flocking into the tobacco producing provinces and offering the planters double the price paid last year. Never before in the history of the tobacco business in the islands have crops been disposed of so early in the season.

The boom has spelled prosperity for the tobacco planter—a prosperity doubly welcome because of the depression which followed the outbreak of the European war and cut off the consumption of Europe, one of the biggest buyers of Philippine leaf tobacco.

But the cigar manufacturer has not shared in this prosperity. Raw materials of every kind have gone up in price and tobacco leaf has advanced enormously. The American demand keeps his plants busy but at a loss, since the greater part of his export is a cheap grade of cigar. In the higher grade cigars, he makes money.

A number of cigar manufacturers have appealed to the collector of internal revenue, pointing out that high prices and cut-throat competition are forcing ruin on many Manila factories. The collector's statement suggests combination to regulate competition and intimates that if the present ruinous conditions are allowed to continue, the government may intervene.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Prof. Mary Whitton Calkins of the faculty of Wellesley College has gone to the University of California's Mills lecturer in philosophy. She is the first woman to receive the honor of this appointment, and has been preceded in the lecture-ship by such philosophers as Prof. G. H. Palmer and the late Josiah Royce of Harvard. Miss Calkins, who will resume her work at Wellesley after Christmas, is the author of several books on psychological and philosophical subjects.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey of Washington, D. C., who recently presided at the opening exercises of the twenty-fifth session of the Washington College of Law, was the founder and is now the honorary dean of the institution. Mrs. Mussey has had one of the most notable legal careers among women lawyers in America. She first read law in the office of Gen. Reuben Delavan Mussey, whom she afterward married. She was admitted to the bar in 1892, after studying at the Cornell Law School. She secured from Congress the bill giving mothers in the District of Columbia the same right to their children as the fathers, also giving married women the right to do business and to control their own earnings. She secured the first appropriation for a public kindergarten in the District. She was one of the founders of the American Red Cross and has been president of the Legion of Loyal Women. Now sixty-six years of age, Mrs. Mussey is still in active practice and is the attorney for several foreign legations.

The "medaille militaire," the coveted reward given by Gen. Joffre to his heroes in the trenches and by the French government to others who now serve France in some capacity in her hour of need, has been awarded Mme. T. Chase Casgrain, wife of the Postmaster-General of Canada. As regent of a chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, Mme. Casgrain went to France and devoted a large sum to the purchase of agricultural implements and other necessary things to help the people there to make a new start upon their ravaged lands.

Women from all over the United States and Canada and from lands beyond the seas are present in thousands this week at the general convention of the Episcopal church being held at St. Louis. Each of the 68 diocesan branches of the women's auxiliary to the board of missions is entitled to send five delegates to the missionary conferences and meetings connected with the convention, and women delegates beside are in attendance from China, Japan, Africa, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines and Honolulu. The climax of the women's share in the notable gathering will be the great service to be held in Christ church cathedral October 12, for the presentation of the women's united offering. The total of the offering at the general convention in 1913 was $306,000 and the women feel confident that their financial tribute this year will even exceed this sum. The secretary of the women's auxiliary is Miss Julia Emery, who has filled the office with signal ability for 46 years.

Miss Grace Gassette, a Chicago girl long established in Paris as a hospital, has been doing such noble hospital service in France that she was once allowed within the fighting lines by Gen. Joffre, an almost miraculous event for a woman, and personally thanked by him for her services to France. Miss Gassette has generously given her whole time and heart to her work and her own country could not have inspired more unselfish devotion. In connection with the American Ambulance Service in Paris she has been making splints for the French wounded and training a score of women in her charge in the work, with such skill and rendering such signal aid to the surgeons in charge, that the French government will now take her from the American Ambulance and place her at the head of one of its own workshops where splints and other apparatus for the wounded are made. The importance of the post to which this clever American is now called may be estimated from the fact that part of her duties will be to visit 6,000 war hospitals and consult there with the surgeons upon the nature of splints and other surgical appliances needed in their particular case.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alhorn and children came up to the city yesterday from Mercedosia in their Reo car.

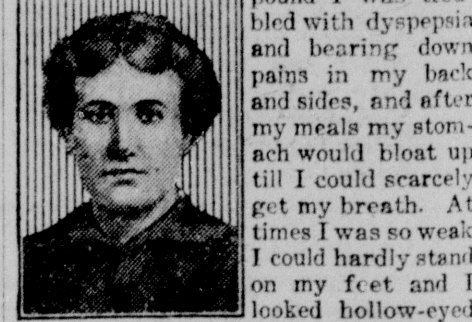

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient's normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by derangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams—

She says:—"Before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with dyspepsia and bearing down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women."—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 31 West 31 Street, New Albany, Ind.
